(Incorporated.)

The doves are wild and scarce.
A big crowd went to Cincinnati Sunday.

Hemp cutting is on in full blast.
Laborers are few and hard to secure.

Sunday was the prettiest and most enjoyable one during the present year.

Ben Bright, of Danville, bought of Hon R L Hubble one team of mare mules, Monday, for $450.

Home grown watermelons are now plentiful and quite cheap. You can get a good run for a quarter.

Some nice fish are being caught at the lake. By the way, the lake has been full to overflowing all summer.

Bro Tinder at Ford.

Bro Tinder left yesterday for Ford, where he will conduct a meeting continuing ten days or two weeks. Bro Tin-der has a wide reputation as an evangelist and temperance worker, and his services are constantly sought after.

W. C. T. U.

A very important meeting of the Womans Christian Temperance Union will be held in their room Saturday afternoon at 2:30. All members are urged to be present.

The Result.

When the church puts as much energy into realizing her ideals as she now does into picturing them the world will be saved.

Frost Coming.

A local weather prophet predicts that this locality will be visited by frost on September 15. He bases his prediction largely upon a popular belief that the first frost will fall forty days from the date the katydids begin singing. The katydids began their nocturnal concerts two weeks ago.

Catalogue For School.

The Record office has just delivered to the Graded Schools a handsome 33 page catalog, setting forth the course of study in each grade, in fact giving a minute detail of every feature of the work to be done at the approaching session. There are fine half tone cuts of the school buildings, the court house, all the churches. If you wish a copy, address or apply to Prof D W Bridges, principal. The pictures alone are worth preserving.

The Standard Oil Way.

When the city of Richmond put a license tax on various occupations to make up for the loss of the saloon license, they placed a license of $75 on wagons delivering oil. The Standard Oil Company had two of these wagons, but rather than pay the license fee the company discontinued the delivery of oil and announced that any one wanting oil must come to the tank for it.

The Laundry a Success.

The Lancaster Steam Laundry is proving a great success and has to hustle to keep up with the work. The work is proving entirely satisfactory and the Herndon Brothers (Hock and Snag) have certainly struck a good thing. The bath rooms are fine, and we have seen men going there who haven't been near so much water before in ten years—either outwardly or inwardly. Telephone the laundry and George Hatcher will be after it in a jiffy.

A Monster Lie.

Some gimbled-headed reporter has started the story that an epidemic of typhoid fever is raging in Lancaster.
A bigger lie was never put about. The doctors say there is not a case of the disease in the town, and we know it to be a fact. When a report like this gets into the daily papers, those country papers who run a "General News" column clip it, boil it down, and it appears like one we saw in a neighboring paper, like this: "An epidemic of typhoid fever is raging at Lancaster." Now that hurts a town, but there seems to be way to check the news paper.
That's the reason we quit running a "General News" column, for we would often clip items and they would prove fakes. The country papers are not to blame, for they depend upon the daily for the "General News." There's no fever in Lancaster, please take notice.

Hotel Going Up Rapidly.

Thirty-five and forty men were kept digging all of last week for the basement of the hotel. The work is done and work on the concrete foun-tions is now in progress. The concrete is the same as that used for the big sky scrapers in the cities, and is cheap er and far better than the old-time stone and mortar. The contractors, Messrs Lewis & Glanz brought a large force of men with them, and these, with all the available help to be had in Lancaster will be used on the work.
The many expressions of joy from the people, over the commencement of work on the hotel, make sweet music to those who have labored for so many years for its rebuilding. Yesterday, we were talking with a well-known and popular drummer, and he said:
"Well, if I weren't afraid of being arrested as a lunatic, I'd walk right out into middle of that little Park, get up on my knees and offer an earnest prayer for this great blessing. It's we poor devils who are on the road who are glad to see it. You'll hear no more knocking on Lancaster now."

What Do They Have.

When a town fellow visits a country home and they set him down to a table laden with hickory wood smoked ham as sweet as nectar, fried eggs fresh from the chicken "factory," home made bread, butter churned before breakfast, milk and cream that never saw chalk or water, with a score of sweetmeats and pastries and fruits, then apologize to him for not having something to eat, he can not help but wonder what they do have when they do have company.—Ex.

Will Admitted to Probate.

In the county court Monday, the will of the late Lewis Y Leavell was admitted to probate. He directed that Lewis L Walker be appointed as executor, which Judge Ford did. After making a number of bequests to certain heirs, he directed that the residue of the estate be placed with three trustees, to be named by the court, as a fund for the benefit of the Lancaster Graded Schools, said fund to be invested and the earnings thereof to be used for the school. Upon recommendation of Mr Walker, the executor,

Judge Ford appointed Messrs B F Hudson, Joel J Walker and R H Batson.

These were also appointed appraisers of the estate. Until the estate is fully appraised, the sum going to the school fund cannot be determined. We are informed that there is no probability of any contest to the will.

Circuit Court.

The wheels of circuit court have been grinding rapidly this week. Judge

Bell utilizing every moment of the time in dispensing with the business.

One of Judge Bell's many splendid customs is that of making every moment count. If there is a lull for lawyers to discuss a case among themselves before going into trial, Judge

Bell will sandwich in some little matter and get it out of the way, instead of leaving the wool sack and coming down into the audience to talk politi-cics, listen to windy yarns and kill time. In other words, he opens for business, and there must be some thing doing all the time. Ever think how much that saves to the tax-papers? Quite a number of 2x1 cases have been settled in this way during the week. The case against Sam Jennings for killing Mace Miller, occupied several days. The jury returned a verdict of five years in the penitentiary.

The case against Bill Hummer for killing Policeman George Pollard last summer, and who was given a new trial by the court of appeals, was taken up

Wednesday, a special jury being secured from a venire from Mercer. As we go to press the trial is in progress.

Good Court Day.

A very good size crowd was in town

Monday and business was very brisk.

There was not very much stock on the market, save mule colts, and, while they were as high as a cat's back, yet most all were sold at from $50 to $65.

Owners were inclined to hold back, so buyers had to come across. As has been the case for the past year, there was no drunkenness or disorder, only again proving what The Record has been harping on for some time—that in

Messrs Beazley and Herron, Lancaster has the best, most faithful and conservative officers she has ever had.

As we are free from the annoyance of an election just now (thank God)

the chief topic of conversation was that of stock, crops and business matters in general. Would that all court days were such.

Crop Conditions.

Lancaster, Ky., August 30, 1907.

Life in New York is attended with some unusual perils these days. If a woman points her finger at a man he is in danger of being mobbed, and now the same fate is likely to befall him if his small child sees fit to cry when he takes it out for an airing. When an innocent citizen was seen carrying his own wailing baby on the street the other day some alert person raised the cry that the youngster was being kidnapped and forthwith the father was attacked by excited passersby and with difficulty saved himself from severe injury. The police took him in charge and he gained freedom only when his wife, the mother of the baby, was sent for. It may get so that a man will not be safe on the streets of the metropolis without a badge vouching for his character.

While the legislatures of the present day are so rampant in passing laws, we wish they would enact one requiring a compulsory table-etiquette education. Especially is this needed in hotels and public places. Last week, while in a Q. & C. dining car, we were compelled to sit vis à vis a fellow who was gnawing a long ear of corn, "roasting ear," as they are familiarly known. He scraped from end to end with the same grating sound that a carpenter files a saw. A near-sighted man across the aisle thought he was using a french harp, and asked him to please play "Home, Sweet Home." The world is filled to overflowing with nuisances, but the hog at the dining table is the most despised.

The Harrodsburg Democrat says:—Sham reform is a very popular cloak for political freebooters these days. Not the least of these are the railroad batters. The railroads should be regulated, but not confiscated. There is no demand for a two-cent fare, for instance, except among the vote-catchers. What the people want is good service, quick service and uniform charges. Passenger rates are low enough. If the railroads are making large profits on it, let them put the surplus into better services.

A New York manufacturing concern is building some trolley cars with a turnstile at the rear platform so arranged that but one passenger can get through at a time and must pay as he goes. The exit is by the front door. This not only saves fares to the company, but leaves the conductor free to pay some attention to the comfort of the passengers. It is hardly necessary to say that this contrivance will discourage the use of open cars.

Down in a neighboring county, a lamp, in the parlor where two lovers were seated, became overheated, exploded and the fellow's hands were badly burned while extinguishing the flames. Any numbskull who would court with a lamp turned high enough to make that much heat should get a scorching, and a severe one, too.

This thing of secret marriages that have long existed being revealed by accident is becoming so general that a man can never know nowadays whether he is paying his addresses to a maid or a married woman. It is not fair to the girls.

The report of that public utilities commission will need an appendix. The mayor of Harrisville, W. Va., announces that because of the profits of the city's electric light plant no city tax will be levied this year. This ought to furnish some light on the subject.

Bishop Fallows makes strong bid for the feminine vote by maintaining that women are not more selfish than "Everybody Should Know" says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., "that Bucklin's Arica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles. I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by McRoberts Druggist 25c. Im men. And yet it is noticeable that he offers no statistics as to who is paying for ice cream and soda water.

Chicago is talking of sending 50,000 representatives to the lakes-to-gulf meeting at Memphis. Do they want to crowd out everybody else? Better send 1,000 and let the other forty-nine thousand be digging on the canal.

Now that the watermelon season is on, people should be very careful when eating the delicious fruit and swallow no seed. Should they happen to such an accident, the doctors would immediately operate for appendicitis.

Some nature faker has started a yarn about a Michigan farmer and his team being chased by wolves. In summer, too, and with deer said to be so thick in the Michigan woods that they endanger the crops.

It is up to Judge Landis to reflect anew upon the far-reaching effects of example. A Venezuela judge has fined the Asphalt trust 20,000,000 bolivars—about $1,000,000 in gold.

Not having been in touch with active business so many years, Mr. Rockefeller will at any rate expect a handsome rebate on that $29,000,000.

A sister of the Younger brothers has reduced the family to dull commonplace by dying of injuries received in a street car accident.

So many false teeth have been lost in the surf there this season that Atlantic City is becoming nervous about hydrophobia.

The ancient worthy who said in his haste that all men are liars doubtless spoke during the fishing season.

Rev. Weilburn will preach his last sermon at Mt. Olivet Sunday morning. Brother Weilburn has been here four years and has endeared himself to many, who regret he will not return after Conference.

The Death Angel was in our midst last Friday morning and claimed for his own, Mrs. Eliza Wilds. She was the oldest person in this community, having passed her 86th mile stone last March. Mrs. Wilds had been in failing health since May but her death was a shock. She was noted for her cheerful disposition and charity to many. She was well prepared for the summons.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the general accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed.

The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by R. E. McRoberts Druggist. 50c. Im

The house was elaborately decorated in palms, ferns and cut flowers, and the lawn was beautiful with myriads of Japanese lights. The frappe table was an attractive feature, presided over by Miss Katherine Cluke. Delicious refreshments were served, and the hours passed very pleasantly with music and conversation.

Whitaker Automatic Gate.

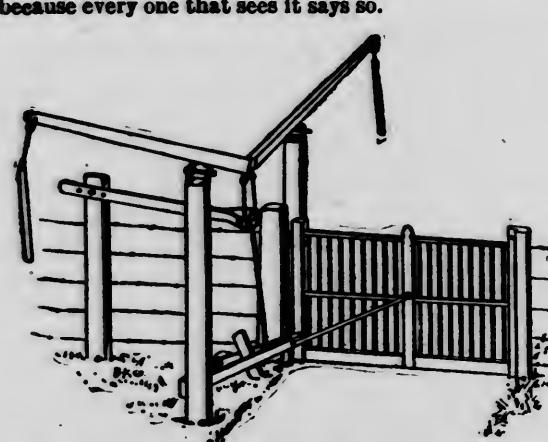

Patented August 22, 1905

BY

NATHANIEL WHITAKER

of Richmond, Madison County, Kentucky.

Why the Whitaker Gate is the best.
1st It is made of first class material.
2nd, It is stock proof.
3rd, It has no dead center and will not stop half open when others give trouble.
4th, It has no latch to get out of order.
5th, It is a perfect lock when closed.
6th, It has less lever motion than any other gate.
7th, It will work on any kind of ground in a curved road and to any kind of post.
8th, It is easier to operate than any other.
9th, because every one that sees it says so.

Read what a few men of the county have to say who are using this gate.
Paint Lick, Ky., August 14th, 1906.

I have one of the Whitaker Automatic Gates that I have used for about seven months, it has not been out of repair in the least, and has not given me one moments trouble so far, and can't see how it will. I like it splendid.
Respectfully, J. C. Rucker.

After using one of the Whitaker Automatic Gates, can say that it gives perfect satisfaction. I consider it the best gate I have ever seen. Would not do without mine for double the cost of it. Yours truly, J. B. Woods.

Paint Lick, Ky.
I have owned one of the Whitaker Automatic Gates for some time. I has given perfect satisfaction and swings so nicely and works so easy that any child can operate it. My little four year old boy has no trouble in using this gate.
Very respectfully, S. D. Cochran.

Buckeye, Ky.

I was the first in this county to purchase one of these gates. I am well pleased with it and would not do without it one year for the cost of the gate. I advise every one that needs a good gate to buy one, they are all right.

Montgomery County Tobacco.

A Mt Sterling notice says: "Arrangements have been made whereby all the tobacco pledged to the Society of Equity in Montgomery county will be received at the warehouses in Winchester and money advanced on the crop. This applies to all tobacco in bulk, and not to that which has been prized by our side parties. One half of the graded value of the crop will be advanced in cash as soon as the tobacco is hauled and turned over to the Clark County Board of Control. Thousands of pounds of the weed will be hauled to Winchester this week."

Endorsed By The Country.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego County, and the best friends of my family," writes Wm M Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N Y, "Dr King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by McRoberts Drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Bees Died from Overwork.

The bee man, as he gently removed a tawny cluster of bees from his beard said:

"Above all things, never set a beehive near an arc light. If you do, your bees will die of overwork within a week."

"An arc light emitting a powerful illumination was put up last spring near my beehives. The night it was put up the bees, mistaking its light for daylight, worked like beavers, though dead tired."

"When the dawn came and the light was extinguished the bees, quite worn out, turned in; but lo, in a few minutes the sun was shining, and out the poor, bedraggled little creatures hurried again, for no bee will consent to pass the daylight hours in idleness."

"They got through the day somehow and at dusk, after 36 hours of unnecessary toll, they once more turned in. Alas, the arc light began to hiss and glow again, and the poor bees, worn to shadows, bent, pallid, staggered forth for another round of labor."

"They were all dead by the end of the week—victims of overwork, every mother's son of them."—N. O. Times-Democrat.

Cost of Cotton Picking.

It requires something like 1,500,000 cotton pickers, each picking 100 pounds of seed cotton an average for each picker and working 100 days, to pick a 10,000,000-bale crop. Of course some pick more than 100 pounds of seed cotton and some less. There are days when, on account of rain, no cotton can be picked. The average of 100 pounds a day for 100 days is not far wrong as an estimate of the picker's work.

At 60 cents a hundredweight the cost of picking a bale of cotton is $9. At 75 cents a hundredweight the cost is $11.25 a bale. Therefore the cost of picking the entire crop will range somewhere between $90,000,000 and $112,000,000.

"Regular As the Sun"

is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated with Dr King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed by McRoberts druggist. 25c.

Liberal Offer to Treat Worst Case of Catarrh.

To the Editor: We have such an unusual offer to make to your readers, one that will be of the greatest value to them, that we hope you will give this letter prominent location.

For some time we have had an opportunity to watch the results following the use of Hyomei, a treatment for catarrh that cures by breathing in medicated air, absolutely without any stomach distress. The results have been so remarkable that we feel justified in making a public offer to treat the worst case of catarrh with the understanding that Hyomei does not cure, it will cost absolutely nothing.

People who have spent a great deal of money with catarrh specialists, deriving but little benefit, have almost immediate good results from the use of Hyomei, and continued treatment with this remedy has resulted in a complete and lasting cure.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs only $1, and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest-pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. Should this not be enough for a cure, extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. Compare this small expense with the fees charged by specialists, and remember we guarantee the treatment will cost nothing unless it cures.

Very truly yours,

R. E. McROBERTS, Druggist.
